GUILTY*FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Bank Fraud, Aiding and Abetting, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344, 2 as charged in Count 7 of the First Superseding Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00 which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $330,698.00 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

VictimAmount

Wells Fargo Bank

$330,698.00

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of the defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $100.00, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's present economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with convicted codefendant Terry Lamar Massengill for the full amount of restitution ordered in this judgement, with convicted codefendant Lance Philip Trantum for $49,700.00 of the amount of restitution ordered in this judgement, and with convicted coconspirator Veronica Perez Brown (Case No. SACR09-00237-DOC) for $121,851.00 of the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, James Browne, is hereby committed on Count 7 of the 15-Count First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 57 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five (5) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and to at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychiatric disorder to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
7. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
8. The defendant shall submit person and property to search or seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable

9. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation Office within 72 hours of his placement on supervised release;
  10. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days of his placement on supervised release, at a date and time to be set by the United States Probation Office, and thereafter report in person to the Court no more than eight times during his first year of supervised release; and
  11. The defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon as defined by federal, state, or local law.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information, excluding the Presentence Report, to State or local social service agencies for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct both a medical and mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

The Court recommends that the defendant be housed in a Southern California institution to facilitate visitation with family, friends and loved ones.

The Court recommends that defendant have an MRI for injuries previously sustained.

The Court informs the defendant of right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
